

SIX DEGREES OF FRIENDSTER

Plus Clip-'n'-Save Membership Cards!

by Evan Ratliff

"If you're an SBF or a DWM looking for love but think online dating is rather creepy, Friendster.com might allay your fears. The site enables you to meet prospective dates exclusively through your friends. It works on the six-degrees-of-separation principle: Jon invites you into his network, you invite your friends, they invite theirs, and so on. . . . With 268,000 members from San Francisco to South Korea and a weekly growth rate of 20 percent, Friendster has to work hard to keep up with demand." —Time, June 2, 2003
